Starting Guide

When not in use. always charge LUNA® X5 by:

- Placing the hand control in the charging station.
- Connecting the charger cable to the side panel*.

Do not pull the hand control cable to move the ceiling lift

Use the medical bed's adjustable height to make the transfer easier

Make sure you are using the right sling size for the resident

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

If the hand control does not work:

- Check that the emergency stop is not activated (if yes, use Reset button).
- ▶ Check that the hand control is properly connected.
- Check battery level.

Why is the charger light blinking?

The green light on the charger blinks when the lift is not charging. Please put the lift back to charge as described previously.

Ceiling Lift Sytem

Starting Guide

DESIGN . SIMPLICITY . MAXIMIZED VALUE . SUSTAINABILITY

Starting Guide

HAND CONTROL

Starting Guide

SIDE PANEL

The load exceeds the selected weight limit.

because of satefy reasons.

In this case, the user can only be lowered

The display on the main lift panel automatically rotates when the lift is flipped over to ensure the indicators remain easy to read in any position.

Press and hold Reset button to deactivate emergency stop.

How to move your lift

FROM ONE ROOM TO ANOTHER

To switch your lift from fixed to portable mode... (or the other way around)

- In fixed mode, the lift is mounted directly in the track.
- In portable mode, the lift is mounted in the track with the strap.

SERVICE INDICATOR

during lowering.

EMERGENCY

Use ONLY in situations

where it is not possible to lower the user normally.

If Up/Down is not working.

Press and hold emergency lowering button; lowering constant beep will sound starts after 5 seconds. A

LOWERING

Yellow

1 month left until annual service (lights up for 30s at activation).

Orange

Annual service exceeded by 1 month (lights up until it goes standby).

Annual service exceeded by 2 months (lights up until it goes standby + 3 beeps upon activation).

